The Left And The Vote

By Al Benson November 24, 2020

The obvious intent of the deep state is to deny Donald Trump the second term he won handsomely with voting machines that have, how shall we say it, been programmed to function only in behalf of the Harris/Biden socialist ticket. The way this has all played out since Trump was first elected should make any serious student of our history realize that Trump was never supposed to beat Hillary and when he did it threw the deep state conspirators into a tizzy they have not gotten over in Trump's almost four years in office.

No president in our history has been subjected to all the political crap that has been thrown at Trump in his four years in office. The Democrats, the media, the politicians in Washington and other places have all conducted a running guerilla war against Trump starting before he was even inaugurated.

But they finally figured how, in this current election, they were going to make sure they got rid of him for all time—creatively designed voting machines that could be altered so as to give Biden the votes he needed to overcome Trump's large lead—when he needed them, where he needed them.

And some of the executives in the company that owns the Dominion voting machines seem to have ties to the far left in this country. C'mon now, are you really surprised? I wasn't. An article on <https://www.naturalnews.com> for November 17th by Ethan Huff stated that "Rabid anti-Trumper and self-identified Antifa member Eric Coomer, the current vice president of U.S. engineering at Dominion Voting Systems, admitted on social media to rigging voting machines in order to prevent President Trump from winning re-election. In a powerful interview with Michelle Malkin, Joe Ottman, founder of FEC (Faith Education Commerce) United, revealed how he secretly infiltrated a local Antifa chapter and overheard discussions involving 'Eric from Dominion' referring to Coomer, and his role in steering the election. Ottman revealed that 'Eric' had instructed his fellow Antifa comrades to 'keep up the pressure' in their opposition to a second Trump win. When one of them responded by asking what Antifa should do if Trump wins, Eric responded with something along the lines of: 'Don't worry about the election; Trump's not gonna win, I made f—ing sure of that!'"

This article also stated: "Dominion, which is tied to both Nancy Pelosi and Dianne Feinstein, appears to have in its upper ranks a diehard Trump hater who expressed a willingness to do anything possible to prevent Trump from winning re-election...For daring to present this information on his Twitter account, Ottman was reportedly banned from Twitter, as is usually the case whenever a bit of truth somehow slips through cracks and lands in a tweet."

Censorship of anything remotely patriotic or conservative has more and more become the norm of late, prompting many to start looking for other venues to express their views on because they realize they will not get a fair shake on Twitter and some of the other mainstream outlets.

Natural News was not the only site carrying some of this. There was an article on <https://thegellerreport.com> and <https://staygate.blog.com> for November 22nd. There were others too, but I can't list them all. Several sites commented on the Dominion/Antifa connection. Needless to say, none of the mainstream "news" media aka the “prostitute press” touched any of this. But then, you wouldn’t expect them to. This is the sort of thing they work at burying, so the public doesn’t find out.

Folks, if you want to ascertain what really goes on in this country, or in the world, the absolute last place you will get any information is from what we laughingly refer to as the “News” media. Start learning to check out alternate news sources. At least they don’t intentionally deceive you the way the mainstream media does.
