An Epiphany On January 6th

By Al Benson January 3, 2021

The way the term Epiphany is usually used in Christian circles on January 6th each year refers to the manifestation of the Lord Jesus to the gentiles—in this case the Wise Men as outlined in the Biblical narrative. The Lord Jesus was manifested, or revealed, to the Wise Men in such a way that they realized His Divinity and who He really was.

This year on January 6th we will witness yet another epiphany to go along with the revealing of the Lord Jesus. This second epiphany, a political one, will reveal just what our Congress is going to do in regard to the massive voter fraud in this recent election where Mr. Trump, and by extension, the American people, had this last presidential election stolen from them by a gaggle of leftists, Democrats, Republicans, Marxists, the news media and certain big tech outfits that would make Karl Marx proud. After all, Marx and those people mentioned herein all have or had the same master—one who is evil incarnate.

Several senators and congress people do plan to protest what was an illegal election in several states. We will see where that goes on the 6th.

At this point my own personal opinion is that the powers that be in both our political parties really want Harris/Biden in the White House instead of having to deal with another four years of Donald Trump. Mr. Trump really crimps their leftist style and after four years of fighting against those people he is finally beginning to figure out where the bodies are buried and they don't want him out there digging them up now so they will move heaven and earth to make sure Harris/Biden (I list Harris first because everyone realizes that she will be the real power in the White House, not Biden) occupy the White House no matter what. They are willing to sell the country out to ensure that. They don't care about this country. Regardless of political party they are globalists and so they have no country—at least none this side of hell.

So, I expect to see this Wednesday a monumental attempt by the left to shoot down, in Congress, any real attempt to deal with the faulty election results and to rush to certify Harris/Biden as the official water carriers for this left in this country and for the Chinese Communists who probably had more to do with our election results than we have been told about by our absent minded mainstream media.

It will be interesting to see how many of our congress critters strive to tap dance around this issue as they labor to deep six any effort to get to the bottom of the massive election fraud we suffered on November 3rd. Keep an eye on their political gyrations as they seek to legitimize the vote fraud perpetrated on the American electorate.

What they do to preserve the results of this fraudulent election may end up being a real epiphany to many naive voters who, up to now, have trusted their elected representatives in Washington. You may end up being treated to a real manifestation of their devotion to the cause of leftism in this country and the world. Just remember who their master really is and you will have no trouble understanding why they do what they do.
