Hillary accountable?

By Al Benson March 11th, 2022

I asked in an earlier post today if Hillary Clinton would be held accountable if it were discovered that she and her campaign had spied on the Trump campaign back in 2016. It was a rhetorical question I already knew the answer. I seriously doubt, that, given our two-tiered system of justice that always gives elites like Hillary a “get out of jail free” card while putting us minor mortals in the slammer if we do the same thing. So I think Hillary will go scot-free, or at most, will get a perfunctory “slap on the wrist, for her crimes. However, judgment in this life is not the only and final judgment. There will come a day when Hillary must stand before Almighty God and give account for all her sins in this life. She will not be able at that point to lie or buy her way out of them. The Lord already knows all the facts and He will judge her righteously and not as the world system does.

There is only one way to avoid that judgment and that is for her to confess her sins, repent of them sincerely and accept the Lord Jesus Christ as her Saviour and Lord. Barring that, she has no hope in the next life. Will she do that? She would be wise to, but who knows? Only the Lord knows. We don't. But her only hope, the only hope for all of us, is expressed in John 14:6 in Holy Scripture. If I were Hillary, at this point, I would really begin to reflect on that.
