Theological Marxists Mandate Spreading Critical

Race Theory

By Al Benson April 27th, 2022

A standard addition to the tenets of religious Marxism in our day has been the addition of Critical Race Theory to their cultural Marxist “prayer book.” You have to understand that, to the cultural Marxist, his belief surpasses the acceptance of a purely economic system, and approaches a messianic belief and acceptance.

Hence, his Marxism is, to him, a religious experience and he is committed to spreading the “gospel” of Marxist thought—willingly to those who are prepared to accept it—forcefully to those who are not. Public school students represent, to him, a captive audience to be force-fed his religious doctrines as he is able to get away with that. Often school boards and teachers unions reinforce his resolve. Those parents with enough knowledge to try to thwart his agenda are hopeless “reactionaries” who need to be denied the attempt to have anything to say about their kids’ education.

Do you begin to grasp the religious zealotry of the typical Marxist—far more intense than that of the average Christian? Although the average Marxist would cringe at my use of religious terminology here, it fits his mindset to a tee. He is a disciple, possibly an apostle, and Karl Marx is his savior. And though he may not always be willing to die for his “faith” he is often willing to go to jail for it—if that will help to make a martyr out of him.

What led me to consider this was an email I got from a friend up in the Midwest in the latter part of last Summer. I would have gotten to this sooner except that, due to health problems, I was offline for seven months and didn’t discover this gem until I started trying to dispense with old emails that were no longer relevant. When I found this one I knew it was one I had to pass along. The URL for this one is long, but try it and see if it will come up for you. It did for me. It is

What this is is a state-by-state list of teachers who will teach Marxist “Critical Race Theory” in schools every chance they get. For those unaware of it, Critical Race Theory is a Marxist construct that separates the different races one from the other so students will have nothing to do with those of other races and it teaches that the white race is out to oppress all the others. Like most Marxist theories it is total hogwash—but that doesn’t stop the Marxists from peddling it.

If you can pull this article up check out your state and see how many leftist teachers are willing to teach kids this leftist claptrap and where they are. I checked out the state of Louisiana and found 20 teachers in this state willing to teach this—two of them in Monroe, right in my back yard. There were 6 in New Orleans—no surprise there—and 3 in Baton Rouge. A few other towns had one each. This is small potatoes compared to some states;

Some states had a ton of them. Cities like San Francisco, New York City and Chicago were top heavy with them. Twenty may seem a small number for Louisiana—but that is still 20 too many! No matter what state you live in it's worth knowing who the teachers are that will promote Marxist ideology. If you can, pull this site up. Good hunting!
