Should The Democratic Party Register as An Agent of Maoist China?

By Al Benson Jr., July 24th, 2022

The title of this article is a question, the answer to which should be “yes.” They should, because they serve the interest of Communist China more than they do the interest of the American people.

I recently quoted from an article that labeled the Democratic Party as “communist traitors” and not the Democratic Party of your father or grandfather. I still can’t argue with that assertion.

A friend sent me this article from World Net Daily News Services <https://www.wnd.com> for July 23rd which said, in part, “House Democrats on Wednesday shot down a GOP-led amendment that would ban the Biden administration and the US Department of Energy from selling oil kept in the Strategic Petroleum Reserve to our enemy, Maoist China. There were 219 House Democrats who voted to block the bill from going forward as gas prices remain more than $2 more expensive per gallon than when President Biden took office. That’s shocking.” That statement is right on the money, but let’s don’t kid ourselves. This is on purpose. Biden has shut down our energy capacity on purpose. Don’t think he doesn’t know what he has done.

A Rep. Valadao was the one who introduced the bill and he stated, quite accurately, that: “It is irresponsible and dangerous to provide a foreign adversary with fuel that we need to keep here in the United States in case of an emergency, it seems the Biden administration is helping to support China’s national security at the expense of our own.” That’s exactly what is going on, but our excuse for a news media won’t touch it and we are all supposed to be too stupid to notice.

It should be obvious to anyone with half a brain by now that Biden’s real policy is China first and America last. I don’t know how much his son’s business dealings with the Chinese communists have to do with all this but obviously they have some impact. Maybe Biden should register as an agent of a foreign power, because he’s doing more for the Chinese than he is for the Americans. What’s more, I don’t think he cares. If there’s money for his family involved, then he’s for sale to the highest bidder, corruptible to the core. And so are many other Democrats, and not a few Republicans. You must realize that, in all this, the Republicans ain’t as conservative as you think. If you look back at their history, the Republicans had serious leftist beginnings in a time when the Democrats were still conservative.

The American people deserve better than what we are saddled with now, a reprehensible excuse for a news media and sellout Congressmen, whose first loyalty is never to those that elected them but is rather to some corporate entity that finances them while in office.

No matter how you look at it, this country and what we once stood for is being sold down the river and those accepting the money for the sellout are laughing all the way to the bank!
